Fair Trade Q&A session

"THE FAIR TRADE WHAT'S OUR LIFE WORTH" PRESS QUOTES "What a beautiful work of art! Cinematically gorgeous with a compelling storyline. What I love most about The Fair Trade is the theme of how in suffering we can be guided to a place of healing, calling, and fulfillment. I like the broad appeal of fair trade with Anti-Body's particular endeavor—how selling soap can change the lives of a few women and beyond.... Just amazing..." John Priddy "...a triumph. One of the most powerful examples of what real faith means in the real world. Blow away great." John Newcombe, award-winning film director "Powerful. An inspiration to all who watch it." Jamie Chvotkin, President, FilmBaby

St Stephen's Church Belrose supports the Bridge of Hope (BoH) micro enterprise development (MED) in Bitung, Northern Sulawesi, Indonesia
